

ECHO AAC Families

What is ECHO AAC Families:

ECHO AAC Families is a free virtual learning opportunity for family members of individuals who use augmentative and alternative communication (AAC) to come together to learn tips for using and supporting AAC through both expert presentations and real-life case-based discussions. Plus, you'll meet other AAC users and families!

Who: Live sessions will be open to all family members of individuals who use AAC and AAC users.

When: ECHO AAC Families will take place on the following Wednesdays from 7:00-8:30 PM:

- 4/14: Learning from the Perspectives of AAC Users
- 4/28: Teaching Strategies to Support AAC
- 5/12: Implementing AAC in the Home
- 5/26: Implementing AAC in the Community

For more information about ECHO AAC, please contact aacpartnershipprogram@waisman.wisc.edu and follow us on Facebook at Waisman Center ECHO AAC!

Where: Zoom links will be sent out via email prior to each session.

If interested in joining, please contact aacpartnershipprogram@waisman.wisc.edu.

